

LEDYARD CANOE CLUB

EXPLORERS SYMPOSIUM

ADVENTURE, STEWARDSHIP, AND HYDROPOWER
ON THE WATERWAYS OF THE WORLD

Dartmouth Hall 105
April 21, 2018
3 – 6 pm

Please join us in celebrating the past, present and future of the Ledyard Canoe Club and the rivers that fuel its adventures, learning, and leadership. Topics will include the 1966 and 1985 National Geographic Sea of Japan and Korea Expeditions, the 1972 Munich Olympics, and a panel discussion on hydropower vs. conservation.

Sponsored by the Dartmouth Club of the Upper Valley

OUR SPEAKERS

Dan Dimancescu '64, 1966 National Geographic Sea of Japan Expedition
Wick Walker '68, 1972 Munich Olympics
Dan Reicher '78, Executive Director of the Steyer-Taylor Center for Energy Policy and Finance at Stanford
Viva Hardigg '84, 1985 Korea Expedition
Nick Gottlieb '11, Creator of campingbykayak.com
Kestrel Kunz, American Whitewater
Dan Johnson, Wildwater World Championship
Ben Masters, Acclaimed film-maker of Unbranded, in current production of The River and the Wall

OUR PANELISTS

Frank Magilligan, Professor of Geography, Dartmouth College
Amy Singler, Director of River Restoration, American Rivers
Scott Hall, Great River Hydro

LCC@dartmouth.edu

ledyardcanoeclub.org

@ledyardo